

Reading Quiz 7

Philosophy 229

March 11, 2016

1) What sort of gap does Chalmers say exists between physics and conscious experience?

a. an explanatory gap

b. a large gap

c. a logical gap

d. a small gap

2) True or false: Chalmers classifies the problem of self-reporting internal states as an “easy” problem.

True

3) To whom does Ryle attribute the “Official Doctrine” of mind?

Descartes

4) Ryle thinks the Official Doctrine is based on a particular kind of mistake. What does he call this type of mistake?

A category mistake

5) True or false: Russell advocates the use of the scientific method in philosophy.

True