

Reading Quiz 1

Philosophy 229

January 15, 2016

- 1) What object does Russell focus on as part of his argument that we do not directly perceive physical objects?
- 2) To whom does Russell attribute the “method of doubt”?
- 3) True or false: Russell thinks we can be certain of our own sense data.
- 4) True or false: Russell thinks there is an external world.
- 5) Which one of the following properties does Russell not consider in his argument that we do not directly perceive physical objects? Please circle your answer.
 - a. The shape of the object
 - b. The texture of the object
 - c. The smell of the object
 - d. The color of the object